

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 887

By Kurita

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate the citizens of Erin, Tennessee, on the occasion of the city's 100th anniversary.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly should pause in its deliberations to join with the cities and counties comprising this great State in celebrating joyous and historic occasions; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Erin are most assuredly deserving of special recognition, as they are commemorating their City's centennial; and

WHEREAS, the seat of Houston County, the City of Erin is possessed of a rich and varied history; and

WHEREAS, while the official Incorporation Charter of Erin is dated 1906, much debate and controversy surround the city's true date of incorporation; and

WHEREAS, the City of Erin was first incorporated in 1873 or 1874; however, the document was lost, never to be recovered, and Erin was incorporated again in 1881 before its official date in 1906; and

WHEREAS, during this estimable city's centennial year, the citizens of Erin will commemorate the many facets of their long history while at the same time establishing a foundation for their long and successful future; and

WHEREAS, it is most appropriate that the members of this legislative body should honor this fine municipality and its citizenry as they commemorate this significant milestone in their historic existence; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

CONCURRING, that we honor and congratulate the citizens of the City of Erin upon the celebration of the centennial of their city's founding and extend to them our best wishes for continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
